

TRAMLINES ETHOS

Tramlines is committed to creating a safe and inclusive festival for all to enjoy, regardless of gender, sexuality, race, age or ability.

We are proud of our community, and the joy you bring to our home at Hillsborough every year. It is our aim to ensure the ethos of Tramlines shines through for years to come and that's why we are asking our festival goers to follow our values at all times.

LOOK OUT FOR EACH OTHER

We've not been able to party together properly for a long time, so please look out for yourselves and your mates. Remember to go at your own speed, if you need a breather from the music or just need to take some time out you can visit our chill out area behind the Welfare Tent.

RESPECT EACH OTHER

Join us in celebrating the fact that we are all different and have come together this weekend to enjoy our favourite bands. We take a zero tolerance approach to hate, discrimination or harassment. If anyone is found to be breaking this rule they will be asked to leave. If you are worried about the behaviour of any of your fellow festival goers please speak to a member of staff or our Guardian Angels straight away.

LOOK AFTER OUR HOME

We're proud to call Hillsborough Park our home. Now more than ever, it is our responsibility to protect the environment. Please put your litter in the bins provided and use your refillable water bottles!

GO AT YOUR OWN PACE

We all want to have a good time but try to avoid getting too intoxicated. Alcohol and other drugs can impair your judgement; don't feel pressured into doing anything you aren't comfortable with. If you do need to visit medics or welfare be honest about what you have consumed so they know how best to help you.
